

This is a digital copy of a book that was preserved for generations on library shelves before it was carefully scanned by Google as part of a project to make the world's books discoverable online.

It has survived long enough for the copyright to expire and the book to enter the public domain. A public domain book is one that was never subject to copyright or whose legal copyright term has expired. Whether a book is in the public domain may vary country to country. Public domain books are our gateways to the past, representing a wealth of history, culture and knowledge that's often difficult to discover.

Marks, notations and other marginalia present in the original volume will appear in this file - a reminder of this book's long journey from the publisher to a library and finally to you.

Usage guidelines

Google is proud to partner with libraries to digitize public domain materials and make them widely accessible. Public domain books belong to the public and we are merely their custodians. Nevertheless, this work is expensive, so in order to keep providing this resource, we have taken steps to prevent abuse by commercial parties, including placing technical restrictions on automated querying.

We also ask that you:

- + Make non-commercial use of the files We designed Google Book Search for use by individuals, and we request that you use these files for personal, non-commercial purposes.
- + Refrain from automated querying Do not send automated queries of any sort to Google's system: If you are conducting research on machine translation, optical character recognition or other areas where access to a large amount of text is helpful, please contact us. We encourage the use of public domain materials for these purposes and may be able to help.
- + Maintain attribution The Google "watermark" you see on each file is essential for informing people about this project and helping them find additional materials through Google Book Search. Please do not remove it.
- + Keep it legal Whatever your use, remember that you are responsible for ensuring that what you are doing is legal. Do not assume that just because we believe a book is in the public domain for users in the United States, that the work is also in the public domain for users in other countries. Whether a book is still in copyright varies from country to country, and we can't offer guidance on whether any specific use of any specific book is allowed. Please do not assume that a book's appearance in Google Book Search means it can be used in any manner anywhere in the world. Copyright infringement liability can be quite severe.

About Google Book Search

Google's mission is to organize the world's information and to make it universally accessible and useful. Google Book Search helps readers discover the world's books while helping authors and publishers reach new audiences. The Council shall have general charge of the affairs, funds, and property of the Club; it shall have full power, and it shall be its duty to carry out the purposes of the Club according to its Charter, Constitution and By-Laws. The interpretation of the Constitution and By-Laws shall rest with the Council.

2. The Council shall, on the last Saturday in December of each year, elect from its own body the President, Vice-President, Secretary and Treasurer, who shall hold office for the ensuing calendar year and until their successors are elected.

3. The Council shall submit at each Annual Meeting a general report of the affairs of the ### Club Meetings and Elections.

VIII. 1. At the regular meeting of the Council in November of each year, the President shall appoint a committee of five, to consist of two members of the Council whose terms expire in the December following, and three members of the Club at large, to nominate at least two candidates for each office to be filled at the ensuing election. On or before the last Saturday in November the committee shall make their report to the Secretary, who shall cause a list of the candidates nominated to be posted on the bulletin-board. Any fifteen, or more, members desiring to make nomination or nominations for any office or offices, may at any time before 6 P. M. on the Saturday next preceding the annual meeting, send such nomination or nominations in writing, signed by them, to the Secretary, who shall forthwith post the same on the bulletin-board, with the names of the signers. No member shall be permitted to nominate more than one candidate for each office. No person not nominated as herein above provided shall be a candidate for any office at any annual meeting. All elections of officers shall be by ballot, and a plurality of votes shall constitute an election. At the annual meeting, to be held in the month of December, 1894, twenty members shall be elected by ballot, who shall constitute the Council for the first year and who shall divide themselves into four classes, to hold office respectively for one, two, three and four years, and thereafter at each annual meeting five members shall be elected by ballot as members of the Council, whose term of office shall be four years.

3. 4. Officers and members of the Council and members of the Committee on Membership shall hold office during the term for which they are elected and until their successors are chosen.

5. Members of the Council and of the Committee on Membership, at the expiration of their term of office, shall be ineligible for election to the same office for the year next ensuing, except members elected to fill vacancies during the year.

6. Upon the written request of ten members, the President shall call a Special Meeting of the Club, which request, as also the notice of any Special Meeting, shall state the object for which the meeting is called, and at a Special Meeting no subject not so stated shall be considered. At the first meeting in each calendar year the committee shall elect a Chairman and Secretary of the committee from among their own number to serve for one year. Vacancies occurring in the committee shall be filled by the committee for the unexpired term. No member of the Council shall be a member of this committee. The names of the committee shall remain posted in a conspicuous place in the Club-house.

2. The committee shall hold regular meetings as provided by their rules, and Special Meetings may be called at any time by the Chairman on a notice of three days.

3. At meetings of the committee eleven members shall constitute a quorum and two negative votes shall be a rejection of a candidate. The name, residence and college or place of instruction of every person proposed for admission, with the names of the members proposing and seconding, shall be posted in a conspicuous place in the Club-house for at least two weeks. The application shall then be referred to the Committee on Membership, the proceedings of which committee shall be secret and confidential. 4. Non-resident Members shall not be entitled to vote at any meeting of the Club or to hold office.

5. Any Resident Member who may remove his residence and place of business to a distance of at least twenty miles from the City Hall, in the City of Buffalo, shall, on written notice to the Treasurer of such removal, become a Non-resident Member ; and any Non-resident Member who may remove his residence or place of business to within twenty miles of said City Hall shall become a Resident Member, and shall notify the Treasurer in writing of such removal.

6. Candidates elected, shall become members of the Club on payment of the entrance fee and of the dues for the current half year, and the election of any candidate shall be void if he fail to make such payment within thirty days after notice of his election is mailed, addressed to him at the place given as his residence on his application card.

7. Officers of the Army and Navy who shall be elected, shall be considered as Non-resident Members, except that, when ordered on service outside the limits of the United States, or when stationed at a post distant more than two hundred and fifty miles from Buffalo for a period longer than one year, their dues shall be remitted during the period of such service.

8. The names of all members who shall fail to pay their semi-annual dues on or before the first days of February and August shall be then posted in a conspicuous place in the Club-house ; and if such dues are not paid on the first days of March and September thereafter, such members shall cease to be members of the Club ; subject, however, to the provisions of Article VII., Section 7, of the Constitution.

At such meeting an appeal may be taken from the decision of the Council, and the member may be restored by a vote of a majority of the members then present.

3. No vote shall be taken on the proposed expulsion or suspension of membership, until after a ten days' notice shall have been given to the member in question. Any member may be suspended by a vote of the Council for a violation of the Rules of the Club.

Gambling.

XIV. 1. No games of chance shall be allowed in the Club-house, except such as are approved by the Council, and the Council shall determine under what restrictions all games shall be played and the revenue which the Club shall derive therefrom. No games shall be played in the Club-house on Sunday.
